

MINFOZ- Member Information Management System.

MINFOZ is the best way to keep track of the members in your organization. It's online, secure, and behind a login, so that you can control and manage your member database.

AT ZERO COST:

No sign up charge, it's FREE.

No fixed charges.

Student organisations with in College or School frameworks are 100% free to use this tool under the supervision of its authorities.

You can manage:

Member information.

Communication and contacts with members via emails.

Membership renewals.

Organisational revenues.

Variety of reports export to Excel or PDF.

If you are a: Non-profit Group, Volunteer-Based Organization, Professional Group or an Organisation, Church / Temple, PTAs & PTO, Sports Team, Home Owners Association, or any other club, you can consider MINFOZ as a complete member management tool for you to manage your members, member subscription, communication and many more.

WE CHARGE:

If you need changes, modifications to the system.

If you want us to input your DATA in to the system.

Annual maintenance fee of USD 1.00 per profile per annum from 2nd year of registration, only from the organisations who have an income flow from its members.

Features:

Dashboard: dashboard of minfoz.com provides the data such as no of members, member types, payment status of members and income from members at a glance in order to take quick decisions for organisation's management.

Members: the assigned administrators can add, view and edit member information and the non-administrators are in a position only to view the member data by their names or ID no.

Committees: minfoz.com has a facility to create and manage organisational groups/committees within its membership.

Events: events and activities of the organisation can be uploaded and maintained via its specially designed window.

Messaging: designated administrators can compose and send messages to groups or individuals as an email through the system.

Payments: income related to membership (fees/ donations) can be maintained and managed with in minfoz.com.

Reports: several reports can be taken out such as income statements and membership status.